

MISSION POSSIBLE

Equipping the Next Generation of Christ Centered Leaders

Team Member Guide

Introduction

You have decided to join a team in a life-changing experience overseas, but you may be wondering what a trip with Mission Possible is all about. This information is designed to help you along the way. The following pages will provide vital information about traveling overseas, relating to a different culture, and loving people in a genuine Christ-like manner. It will also be a guide for you to encounter God and allow him to change you spiritually.

We hope to answer, through this document and your training sessions, any questions you may have about your trip, the people, the culture, and your primary focus of the trip. As far as your specific trip is concerned, ie: exact dates, flight schedules, etc., if you don't have it already, this information will be given to you very soon.

Our intent is that this information and the guide as a whole will help you prepare physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually for your trip. Be sure to bring this guide with you on your trip.

If this is your first time on a mission team, get ready for quite a ride! Prepare yourself to serve, love, learn, grow, stretch, be flexible and give your heart away. We guarantee that the more you pour out, even more will be poured in.

If you are a second, third, or long time veteran, keep in mind that this will be a brand new team and your experience is to be embraced with a fresh heart and a desire to serve. You can be instrumental in building team unity and cohesiveness because of your previous experience. We hope that your joy will be as deepened by this trip as it was previously.

Lord,

You know how you have prepared and called each member of this team. Each one plays a specific role in what you will be doing on this trip. Go before us. Come behind us. Give us your presence on our right and on our left. Be our umbrella of protection and our firm foundation. May we do your will and set aside our personal agendas and ideas about what this trip is to be. May we love you and others as we go.

Amen

The purpose of Mission Possible is equipping the next generation of Christ-centered leaders. This is the end, the purpose, the goal of any trip that is taken.

The trip's end or ultimate purpose is not to build a school, paint a fence, provide healthcare, or teach masonry. Each of these things is a wonderful, good, and necessary means to the end of equipping leaders.

There is a child in Haiti that will miss his or her opportunity to be a leader without a Mission Possible school. There is a person in the Dominican Republic (DR) who will not be allowed to rise to leadership without the safety provided by a fenced in property. There are future leaders who will suffer and perhaps die without proper health services. There is a family, from which a future leader will come, who will survive by one of its members learning the masonry trade.

Mission Possible is the Ace Hardware (or choose your favorite hardware store) for leadership in Haiti and the Dominican Republic. Ace doesn't come and fix your toilet, or pound the nail. It doesn't mow your yard, or paint your family room. Ace Hardware provides the necessary tools and supplies for the job. It provides the means for you to accomplish the end result. Home Depot says, "You can do it. We can help." Mission Possible and your participation in this ministry team provide the necessary tools and supplies for the leaders and teachers in Haiti and the DR to do the job of leadership development.

Kurt Bishop, president of Mission Possible, once said, "Just think. The next president of Haiti or the DR could be in one of our schools today." Yes, just think, leadership throughout Haiti and the DR can be changed through the work of God, Mission Possible, and the other leadership development ministries in these countries. And yes, just think, you are going to be a part of that leadership toolbox.

Mission Possible seeks more than putting Christian leaders in the Haitian government. Mission Possible is about Christ-centered leadership. So primary to the development of leaders comes the discipleship of the spirit through the Spirit. As you will hear from our national leaders Herve Pierre and Moise Sam, growing Christ-centered followers of the one Lord and God is the chief end of our mission.

This chief end is based on the biblical commands and commission of Jesus Christ.

Matthew 22:34-40, "Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. One of them, an expert in the Law tested him with this question. Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law? Jesus replied: Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it, Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Matthew 28:19-20, “Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the earth!”

Spiritual leaders may end up as president. However, many live ordinary lives as extraordinary leaders in the hands of God.

You are such a leader. As you journey on this trip, you will have the unique opportunity, out of your ordinary life, to lead in an extraordinary way.

For whatever reason, you have chosen to take this trip. We at Mission Possible call your choosing self-selection. You have selected yourself to be used by God. Why are you going?

Write here why you are going on this trip:

The primary end of Mission Possible is equipping the next generation of Christ-centered leaders. This not only happens in Haiti and the DR, equipping leaders happens on trips just like this one with people just like you.

God will be changing you. You will be entering an incubator especially prepared for you by God. The travel, the culture, the people, the children, everything will be part of the Spirit's specially planned environment for growing you more fully into what he wants you to be.
